Transcript of A Fever Night Tonight –
By Shomit Sirohi

I. Sirohi and the Zionists

Drinking rum, and discussing fever and delusional behaviour in Sirohi.

Music plays – Metallica and other songs leading into it

A lot of love for Tara and Faraa, also at occasions Esther.

“Messianic, like the 1990s, Messianic.”

Zionists resonate and found it exactly like the 1990s, at points.

“Sense this as the 1990s again, Messianic.”

Reverend argues “I think Messianic means he will recover from fever and suicidal problems.”

“Listening to the music and remembering the 1990s a lot.”

“Zionism still finds Messianism. Inspiring is usually the word, this occasion Messianic is the word.”

Drinking rum further and following the sense of “Tara and Faraa, even Esther on occasions.”

“Messianic, and even fever which is going away” according to Reverend who is following this on the road.
